Dear Mr Hardy,

I rang Feldon Lodge about Duke of Edinburgh Award gold expeditions run by them and found they are fully booked this September. They however gave me Mr Fishwicks name to contact and he in turn gave me yours.

I have a lad in my company who needs to do his gold expedition but is unable to get time off college to go with the county organised ones at half term. He is keen to complete his gold award before he finishes college next July, therefore I am writing to ask if it is possible for you to consider including him in your expedition training course for next Easter.

Yours sincerely,

Captain 15th Luton Boys Brigade Company.
